ASSOCIATION

FORM 3

SOCIETY ACT

CONSTITUTION

1. The name of the Society is the BRITISH COLUMBIA WHOLESALE LUMBER ASSOCIATION.
2. The purposes of the Society are:
 - (a) to advance the interests of the lumber wholesaling industry in the Province of British Columbia;
 - (b) to disseminate trade information and encourage improvements in business methods;
 - (c) to foster, maintain and develop communication and co-operation among lumber wholesalers and other branches and levels of the lumber industry in the Province of British Columbia and elsewhere;
 - (d) to represent the interests of lumber wholesales in British Columbia to governments, governmental agencies and to the public generally;
 - (e) to promote high standards of business conducts and integrity in the lumber wholesaling industry;
 - (f) to sponsor and conduct research and study into matters of concern and interest to the lumber wholesale industry;
 - (g) to do all such things as the Society may deem necessary or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing purposes or any of them.
3. The operations of the Society will be carried on without profit and any income of the Society shall be exclusively used to promote its purposes and no part of its income shall be payable to, or available for the personal benefit of, any member. This provision is unalterable.
